

Gifts to You from the Heart

These gifts may be simple, but each one has its special meaning:

The candy cane, reminiscent of a staff, is to remind you to walk the path of peace.

The candle, with its warm embracing glow, is to remind you that love will light your way.

The ribbon, tied in a bow, is to remind you to always keep hope in your heart.

The candy, a delightful treat, is to remind you to taste the sweetness and joy life brings.

In the spirit of the holiday season, my wish for you is

Peace

Love

Joy
